Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be applied to Jeanette Terry. She has dedicated the past 23 years to serving the needs of South Dakotans; and,

Whereas, Jeanette was born and raised in Claremont, South Dakota, and after high school, she furthered her education at Huron University; and,

Whereas, Jeanette served her country in the United States Army for 12 years, was stationed at Walter Reed Army Medical Center for 8 years, and was a recruiter in Los Angeles for 4 years. During her years of service, Jeanette was one of the first women honor graduates of the Army's Trucking Division School in Fort Dix, New Jersey; and,

Whereas, Jeanette began her career with the state of South Dakota in the Department of Social Services, Child Support Enforcement Division, in July of 1989. She brought her talents and positive attitude to the Department of Revenue in November of 1993 as a Revenue Agent and was promoted to Revenue Supervisor in November of 1998; and,

Whereas, Jeanette is known for her exceptional dedication to her job and has represented the Department in a professional, honest manner. She believes the customer comes first and truly cares about the taxpayers of South Dakota, treating each taxpayer with respect and dignity; and,

Whereas, Jeanette will spend her retirement enjoying quality time with her husband, Sam, and her family; and,

Whereas, On August 8, 2012, Jeanette will retire from the Department of Revenue with 23 years of service; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 8, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
